

I am hoping that you will uphold the Indiana Do Not Call List Law. I do not want a bank to call and try to sell me their services. It is very nice not to have telemarketing calls coming into my home every evening. Indiana was at the forefront of Do Not Call lists, and it has made my evenings with my family very nice and quiet.